Dear Sirs: Attention: Mr. Wood.

Reference is made to your conversation with this office in the latter part of January, 1937, with regard to the death of Mr. Robert Robertson, Assistant Curator of your Society, on January 22nd.

In July 1935, the Order of Vasa was conferred on Mr. Robertson by His Majesty, the King of Sweden. In accordance with the rules and regulations of this Order, the decoration should be returned at the death of the holder. As I understand that Mr. Robertson's decoration is now in your care, I should deem it a great favor if you would be kind enough to arrange for its return to this office at your convenience.

Yours very truly,

(Martin Kastengren)
Consul General.
